Galilee

Jesus came from the town of N..... in Galilee. This northern territory of P..... was also his most important area of activity. Apart from the larger towns of Sepphoris and T....., Galilee was a country area, and agriculture was the main occupation. The Lake of Gennesaret was famous for its fishing. Jesus is said to have found his first disciples among fishermen (Mark 1:16-29). In the time of Jesus Galilee was surrounded by a number of G..... cities. The rest of the area was Jewish. Nazareth where Jesus lived for 30 years is in Galilee and many of the G..... stories are set in Galilee.

Samaria

South of Galilee lived the Samaritans, a mixed population resulting from political transfers of population, whom the Jews did not consider to be real Jews. While the Jewish Temple was situated on the Temple Mount in Jerusalem, the Samaritans regarded Mt. G..... as sacred. They recognized as Holy Scripture only the five books of M....., and the textual form they used was different from that in use among the Jews.

Judaea

The name Judaea had two different senses. Firstly, it meant the area surrounding Jerusalem, secondly it meant the whole area inhabited by Jews, which finally became a Roman province. The mountainous region surrounding Jerusalem is dry and bare. To the east is the D..... S.... In the oasis area north of the Dead Sea is J....., which is thought to be one of the oldest towns in the world. B..... where Jesus was born is close to Jerusalem in Judaea

Jerusalem

To the Jews Jerusalem was the centre of the world, where God dwelt in the Temple. The Jews went there on p..... at least once a year. It was also the economic, administrative and cultural centre.
