Unit 3: Personal and Business Finance

Learning Aim D: Select and Evaluate Different Sources of business Finance

Complete all activities.

Businesses need finance for a number of reasons. The source of finance is where this money comes from. What the money will be used for will determine which source of finance is used. For example, a long term bank loan or mortgage is likely to be used to purchase a building, but this would not be suitable for replenishing stock.

1.	Sources of finance can be internal or external. Explain the difference between internal sources of finance and external sources of finance.
2.	Provide definitions for each source of finance listed below:

3. Ahmed wants to open a small business selling custom bikes, and is looking at ways of raising money. He owns his own house and is considering acquiring a second mortgage. He is also speaking to his bank about a loan and is looking at crowdfunding sites, as he thinks his product is innovative and could attract investors.

Assess a mortgage, a loan and crowd funding as sources of finance for Ahmed. (8 marks)

Suggested structure:

A mortgage is...This could be a suitable method for Ahmed to raise money because...which could lead to...therefore...

However, a mortgage could be considered unsuitable for Ahmed because...which could lead to...therefore...

A loan is...This could be a suitable method for Ahmed to raise money because...which could lead to...therefore...

Unit 8: Recruitment and Selection Process

Learning Aim A: Examine how effective selection and recruitment contribute to business success

There are lots of reasons why an organization may need to recruit someone to a position. One of the most common that you may have heard of it that someone is leaving to go and work for another organization and their position needs to be filled. Large businesses carry out workforce planning to find out if they need to recruit anyone at all.

1. There are many reasons why a business would need to recruit new staff. List as many in the table below that you can think of in the first column, then explain why a business would need to recruit for that reason in the second. The first one has been completed for you.

business is need to recruit. Employees may be needed locally, nationally or even globally.  Define the following key terms:  Workforce planning:	The	recruiting staff  If the number of customers or sales is increasing, the business will

5.	Many businesses now make use of online methods to recruit staff rather than traditional advertising such as shop windows or in the local newspaper. Using the table below, make a list of online methods and traditional methods used to help recruit new staff. One has been listed under each heading to help you.

6.	Why is recruiting the correct staff important for business success?

Recruitment and Selection Process

The two elements of the recruitment and selection process are:

- Producing the documents that are needed for recruitment from the advertisement, including arrangements for applicants to send in their information to the business.
- Selection of the candidates once applications have been received.

Ms Sue Jones Human Resources Manager Safety First Ltd Main Street Danesbury DN3 9JL

Dear Ms Jones

CUSTOMER SERVICE TEAM MEMBER

I would like to apply for the position of Customer Services Team Member which is advertised on your website.

I successfully completed a BTEC First business course at Danesbury College last month and since then have been working at the local Sports Gear store. I am also taking a summer course to improve my IT skills. I am attaching my CV which gives details of my qualifications and my work history.

I would very much like to be considered for this job for several reasons. I really enjoy helping customers both in person and over the telephone. I am well organized and do not need direct supervision to do a good job.

I would very much like to work for your company and contribute to the work of the customer services team. I am familiar with the range of products you sell and know their importance because of my work on my business course. I would really enjoy learning more about customer services and would enjoy studying for a qualification in this area.

I am an enthusiastic and conscientious worker. I am also used to contributing to the work of a team, both at Sports Gear and as a member of a local charity football team. I can attend for interview at any time.

Yours sincerely

ack Kelly nc.
